Welcome to Hacky Hour!

Getting Started with Gather.Town!

UCSF Library

Today, we are using Gather.Town!

If it’s your first time, you might’ve already completed the tutorial.

Otherwise, you can review it here.

You may have to enable screenshare and other permissions if it’s your first time.

See the instructions here.

We will begin in the presentation space on the left side of the room.

Presentation Space

Later for the group activities, you will go to the breakout rooms on the right.

The discussions in each breakout room is isolated.

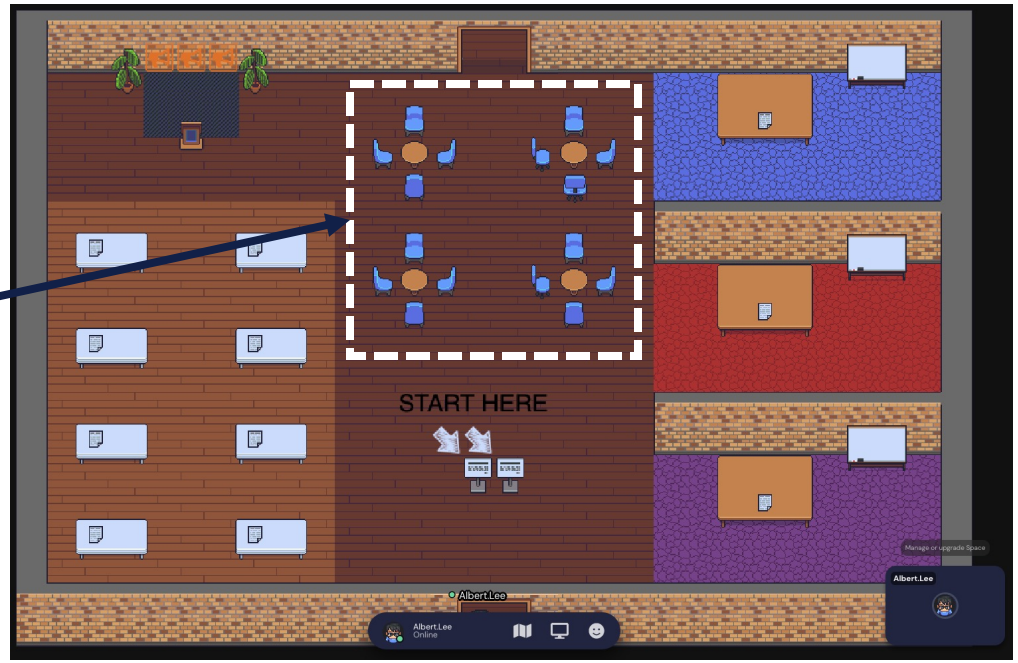
Feel free to utilize the whiteboards in your group work.

Breakout Rooms

At the end of the session, there will be time for casual discussions and networking.

You can use the coffee tables in the networking area to hold isolated conversations.

Networking Area



Now you are ready for our Hacky Hour!

Head over to the presentation space!

Fun Tip: Hold z and see what happens 😉

University of California
San Francisco